

Policing Futures: Contexts, Practices and Debates

A Postgraduate Research Conference

Wednesday 7th June 2017: School of Law, University of Leeds

#PolicingFutures2017

As part of the British Sociological Association's regional postgraduate event series and supported by the White Rose Doctoral Training Centre's Security, Conflict and Justice Pathway, and the N8 Policing Research Partnership, this conference will facilitate a vibrant and constructive forum in which postgraduate researchers are encouraged to present their research on the developing contexts, practices and debates inherent within contemporary policing. The format is particularly suited to presenting research in progress, and for developing new and existing networks between postgraduate researchers within the broader policing field.
