

The European Centre for the Responsibility to Protect Film Series

Semester 1 2017

Held every Tuesday fortnightly

5pm to 7:30pm

At the Chemistry LT D

Screenings are free and open to all
University of Leeds students and staff

03 October

When Good Men Do Nothing

Introduced by Professor Jason Ralph

17 October

The Act of Killing

Introduced by Dr Adam Tyson

31 October

Paragraph 175

Introduced by Dr Kaisa Hinkkainen

14 November

Year Zero: The Silent Death of Cambodia

Introduced by Dr Adrian Gallagher

28 November

No screening this week due to the Centre's annual lecture on 30 November featuring Ivan Simonovic, Special Adviser of the Secretary-General on the Responsibility to Protect.

For more information, please contact the series' convenor, Dr Eglantine Staunton, (e.c.g.a.staunton@leeds.ac.uk).