

The Programme

9:00 - 9:30	Registration, Tea and Coffee, and Poster Viewing
9:30 - 10:00	Welcomes
	G.32	G.33
10:00 - 11:00	Addressing the Problem Jessica Read (Law) Older prisoners and resettlement issues Zennifer Oberio A representation of the problem of finding process from a situated perspective	Children in Focus Jane Reas (Sociology &amp; Social Policy) 'Children that are cute enough to eat': The commodification of children's bodies in volunteering vacations to Siem Reap, Cambodia Mohaned Abed (Education) The knowledge and beliefs concerning ADHD held by children, parents and teachers in Saudi Arabia
11:00 - 11:20	Coffee / Tea Break and Poster Viewing
11:20 - 12:50	Culture and Ideologies Christopher Markham (Law) Apprenticeship, acculturation and acquiescence: An inter-disciplinary take on occupational culture within the criminal justice system Hafiz Salae (POLIS) Islamist politics in Thai society: Ideologies, strategies, challenges and integration Kate Wicker (Sociology &amp; Social Policy) What makes an 'expert'? Claiming, conferring and denying authority in the uncertain and contested area of radicalisation	Into the Future Leena Alfarani (Education) Exploring the influences on faculty members' adoption of mobile technology for use in mobile learning at King Abdulaziz University, Saudi Arabia Liliana Soto Gomez Regulating Mexican biobanks: What can be learned from the European experience? Rebecca Warburton (Education) Testing the teachers: Utilising the Michigan multiple-choice measures for mathematics teachers in England
12:50 - 13:30	Lunch and Poster Viewing
13:30 - 15:00	Beyond the Boundaries Benedict Docherty (POLIS) The sustainability of international society Kate Gooding NGOs, advocacy, research and other evidence Shanna Saubert (Education) International students and the higher education experience	Overcoming the Divide Seong-won Yoon (POLIS) Isolated trust, disparate ideologies: The difficulty of building trust between Seoul and Pyongyang Cemaliye Beysoylu (POLIS) European integration and local political actors: The case of Cyprus conflict
15:00 - 15:20	Coffee / Tea Break and Poster Viewing
15:20 - 16:00	Keynote and Plenary – Is there life after the PhD?: Careers and transitions
16:00 - 16:15	Close	