

A BEHAVIOURAL APPROACH TO CORPORATE AND FINANCIAL LAW

The Liberty Building, Leeds School of Law
June 11th-12th, 2014

Conference Programme

Time		Day One: Wednesday 11 June 2014
10:30 - 11:00		Registration and Coffee
11:00 - 11:15		Welcome: Professor Gerard McCormack & Professor Willem van Boom/ Professor Michael Faure
11:15 - 12:30		Chair: Professor Anthony Ogus, University of Manchester
		Keynote Speaker: Professor Jonathan Klick, University of Pennsylvania 'The Problem of Under-Specified Behavioural Models in Law and Economics'
12:30 - 13:30		Lunch
13:30 - 15:00	Session 1	Chair: Professor Andrew Keay, University of Leeds
		Paper 1: Professor Andrew Campbell, University of Leeds 'Deposit Insurance and Its Effect on the Behaviour of Depositors'
		Paper 2: Professor Willem van Boom, Erasmus University Rotterdam "If It's Easy to Read, It's Easy to Claim" Reading Ease in Standard Contract Terms and Consumer Behaviour'
15:00 - 15:15		Coffee Break
15:15 - 16:45	Session 2	Chair: Professor Roger Halson, University of Leeds
		Paper 3: Professor Joanna Gray, Newcastle University 'Behavioural Finance and the Macroprudential Dimension'
		Paper 4: Professor Andrew Johnston, Dr Jay Cullen & Trevor Pugh, University of Sheffield 'Theories of Money, Financial Regulation and Policy'
16:45 - 17:00		Coffee Break

17:00 – 18:30	Session 3	Chair: Dr Sophia Tang, University of Leeds
		Paper 5: Professor Alessio Paccas, Erasmus University Rotterdam & Professor Claire A Hill, University of Minnesota
		‘Uncertainty and Justifications in Corporate and Financial Law: A Behavioural Law and Economics Approach’
		Paper 6: Dr Sarah Brown & Dr Qi Zhou, University of Leeds
		‘Judicial Control of Consumer Loans: a Behavioural Law and Economics Perspective’

Time		Day Two: Thursday June 12 th , 2014
8:30 to 9:00		Registration and Tea/Coffee
9:00 – 10:30	Session 4	Chair: Professor Gerard McCormack, University of Leeds
		Paper 7: Professor David Campbell, University of Lancaster
		‘Central Problems of Marx’s Economics and the Nature of Market Regulation’
		Paper 8: Judith Dahlgreen, University of Leeds
		‘Mutuality in Financial Services’
10:30 – 10:45		Coffee Break
10:45 - 12:15	Session 5	Chair: Professor Joan Loughrey, University of Leeds
		Paper 9: Dr Franziska Weber, University of Hamburg
		‘Law Enforcement in the Banking Sector Assessed: a Comment from a Law and Economics Perspective’
		Paper 10: Dr Pinar Akman, University of Leeds
		‘When Are Excessive Prices Unfair? Using Behavioural Economics in Competition Law’
12:15 - 13:15		Lunch
13:15 - 14:45	Final Plenary	Policy-Makers’ Perspective: Panel Discussion Chair: Professor Michael Faure, Erasmus University Rotterdam Dr David Bholat, Bank of England Colm Kincaid, Central Bank of Ireland Rachel Sandby-Thomas, Director General, Business & Skills and Legal at the Department for Business, Innovation & Skills