

Centre for Criminal Justice Studies Postgraduate Research Students' Conference
Conference Programme - 17th June 2014

9.30 Registration

10.00 Opening Address

Dr. Peter Whelan, Deputy Director of the Centre for Criminal Justice Studies.

10.10 Session 1: Cybercrime and Terrorism

Chair: Nick Addis

Umami Hani Binti Masood: An analysis of the concept of cyber attacks

Adekemi Omotubora: Dead on Arrival? The Hacking 'Offence' under the Proposed Cybercrime Bill in Nigeria

Isra Samandecha: The offences relating to terrorism in Thailand: an analysis and critique with reference to international and comparative law

Bader Alrajhi: Terrorist Financing: Kuwait's Response after June 2013

11.30 Refreshments and Pastries

11.45 Session 2: International Governance and Criminal Justice

Chair: Ian Marder

Woong Jang Yoon: Legal issues in pharmacological treatment orders for sex offenders in South Korea

Mohammad Menwer Al Mutairi: Constitutionalising Executive powers in Kuwait with reference to the UK

Johanna Schönhöfer: Researching the Impact of the Punitive Turn on Solidarity

12.45 Lunch

13.30 Session 3: Domestic and International Policing

Chair: David Thompson

Lee Johnson: Studying Assaults on Police Officers - Some Conceptual Considerations

Deborah Platts-Fowler: Policing to prevent and contain community disorders

Chan Yew Hiok: The Governance of Police Abuses Against Detainees in Malaysia

Chu Van Dung: Effectiveness of a transnational policing system from the ethical perspective

14.50 Refreshments: A Taste of CCJS!

A selection of international refreshments brought in by CCJS members to showcase the cultural diversity of the Centre.

15.20 Keynote Address: Professor Shadd Maruna, Director for the Institute of Criminology and Criminal Justice in the School of Law at Queen's University, Belfast.

Title of Address: 'Why We Love Psychopaths'

16.20 Conference Close and Wine Reception

17.00 Depart for Meal

17.30 Conference Meal: Zizzi's Restaurant, 'The Light' Shopping Centre, The Headrow, Leeds.