

EU non-discrimination law and policy – a future mandate?

Short CVs

Christian Bayart

(Biographical information not yet available)

Professor Daniël Cuypers

Daniel Cuypers is Professor for employment and discrimination law at the faculty of law, University of Antwerp where he also holds a variety of executive roles. Furthermore, he is a member of the Flemish Administrative Tribunal for Student's Complaints against universities and colleges. He was solicitor at the Bar of Brussels for ten years and did his PhD at the University of Louvain. His key publications in English include; D. Cuypers and E. Verhulp 'Flexicurity and Employment Protection, a Happy Marriage?' in F. Pennings, Y. Konijn and A Veldman (eds) Liber Amicorum Teun JASPERS, Social Responsibility in Labour Relations (Kluwer 2008), J. Motmans, D. Cuypers et al (eds.) Equal is not enough: challenging differences and inequalities in contemporary societies, (Conference Proceedings, Antwerp, Steunpunt Gelijkekansenbeleid, 2011) and D. Cuypers and W. De Bondt 'The Role of Legal practice in Legal education' in E. Dirix and Y.H. Leleu (eds.) The Belgian reports at the Congress of Washington of the International Academy of Comparative Law (Washington, Brussel, Larcier, 2011)

Barbara Havelková

Barbara Havelková is the Herchel Smith Temporary Lecturer and Fellow in Law at Emmanuel College. Barbara graduated from the Faculty of Law of Charles University in Prague and is currently finishing her doctorate at University of Oxford. Previously, Barbara worked for Clifford Chance Prague, trained at the Legal Service of the European Commission and in the Chambers of AG Póiaras Maduro at the Court of Justice of the European Union. She visited several law schools as a guest researcher, including Harvard University and University of Michigan as a Fulbright scholar. Barbara collaborates with various Czech women and human rights NGOs on monitoring and advocacy projects in the area of gender equality. Her interests include EU law, human rights and equality law, labour law and gender legal studies.

Dr. Panos Kapotas

Panos Kapotas holds an LLM from UCL and a PhD in Law from the LSE. His research focuses on equality and non-discrimination in Europe, exploring the relationship between positive action and the notion of full and effective equality. He currently holds a Fellowship at the London School of Economics and he is a visiting Lecturer at City University London.

Sara Benedi Lahuerta

Sara Benedi Lahuerta is an academic assistant at the Legal Studies Department of the College of Europe (Bruges, Belgium) and a part-time PhD candidate at the University of Leicester. Her research focuses on the effectiveness of the Race Equality Directive at national level. She has been a trainee at the European Commission (DG Justice) and she holds a Master in European Union Law of the College of Europe, where she specialised in EU equality law. She is the author of the ENAR Shadow Reports on Racism in Spain of the last two years and she has trained Spanish civil servants on EU and Spanish anti-discrimination law.

Mary Ellen Lyons

Mary Ellen Lyons is a PhD student in the Department of Politics and Public Administration in the University of Limerick since 2011. Her PhD research is focused on the Europeanisation of social inclusion policies in Ireland. Her main research interests include Europeanisation, social policy, gender equality, poverty and social inclusion and public policy analysis.

Jule Mulder

Jule Mulder has studied Comparative and European Law at the Hanse Law School (the Netherlands/Germany). She is now a PhD researcher at the University of Leeds closely to handing in her thesis. She will start as a lecturer in European Law at the University of Leicester in January 2013. Her main research interests lie in the field of European anti-discrimination law.

Dr. Charlotte O'Brien

Charlotte O'Brien's first degree was in Social and Political Sciences, after which she started volunteering for a Citizens Advice Bureau. She completed an LLM, followed by an AHRC-funded PhD. In 2009 she was appointed lecturer at the newly established York Law School and she still does CAB casework. Her research interests focus on EU social law and its implementation in the UK.

Dr. Colm O'Cinneide

Colm O'Cinneide is a Reader in Human Rights Law at University College. He was a member of the UK Task Force on the establishment of the new Commission for Equality and Human Rights and specialist legal advisor to the Joint Committee on Human Rights on the Equality Bill 2010. He has published extensively in the field of human rights and anti-discrimination law, and is currently Vice-President of the European Committee on Social Rights

Dr. Liz Oliver

Liz Oliver is a lecturer at Leeds University Business School. Before that she worked as a Research Fellow in the 'European Law and Policy Research Group' at the University of Liverpool. Her research interest lie in the field of employment law.

Professor Dagmar Schiek

Dagmar Schiek is Chair for European Law, Director of the Centre of European Law and Legal Studies at the University of Leeds and holds an ad personam Jean Monnet Chair in Law. Previously she was Jean Monnet Professor of European Economic Law at the University of Oldenburg (Germany). Her research interests lie in the field of European Economic and Social constitutionalism, new forms of governance in the EU involving civil society and European and international equality law. She is on the editorial board of the Maastricht Journal for Comparative and European Law and of Kritische Justiz (Critical Legal Studies, Germany). She has been a visiting professor and guest lecturer at various universities, including London School of Economics and Maastricht University.