

The Future of Forensic Bioinformation

---

International Symposium, 29th – 30th July,
Brasenose College, Oxford University, UK.

Agenda

- 1000      Chair: Tim Wilson                      Speaker: Carole McCartney
Welcome and Introduction to the symposium
- 1020      Session One – Background to the UK seminars and the possible implications of the judgement by the European Court of Human Rights in S. and Marper v. The United Kingdom for law and practice relating to the use of forensic bioinformation.
- 1100      Tea / Coffee
- 1115      Chair: Tim Wilson                      Speaker: ALL
Session Two – Key current issues, concerns, research findings and achievements from the viewpoint of those countries and international organisations represented at the symposium.*
- 1300      Lunch
- 1345      Chair: Carole McCartney                      Speaker: Bird; Williams; Gill
Session Three – Governing DNA profiles, samples and fingerprints: quality assurance of DNA and fingerprints: three presentations covering the Canadian Parliamentary review (David Bird), the NAS report (Robin Williams) and the Swedish Initiative (Peter Gill).
- 1500      Tea/ coffee
- 1515      Chair: Robin Williams                      Speaker: Carole McCartney
Session Four –: Governing DNA profiles, samples and fingerprints: a review of issues and questions identified from the UK seminars informed by the presentations during Sessions Two and Three
- 1630      Chair: Carole McCartney
Concluding discussion
- 1800      Reception
- 1900      Dinner

