

ESRC SEMINAR SERIES:
GOVERNING THROUGH ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

Seminar 1: Governing Anti-social Behaviour through Housing

Venue: The Hub Building, Sheffield Hallam University

Thursday 15 November 2007

PROGRAMME

10:00	Arrival and tea/coffee
10:30	Introduction to the seminar series	Adam Cranford (University of Leeds) David Prior (University of Birmingham)
10:45	Introduction to today's seminar	John Flint (Sheffield Hallam University)
11:00	A Perspective on Housing and the Governance of Anti-social Behaviour	Alison Brown (University of Stirling) Discussant: Peter Squires (University of Brighton)
12:00	Lunch
12:40	Governing Anti-social Behaviour Through Housing: The Case of the Private Sector Governing Anti-social Behaviour Through Housing: The Role of Social Landlords	Dave Cowan (University of Bristol) Caroline Hunter (University of Manchester) Discussant: Sarah Blandy (University of Leeds) Peter Jackson (Social Landlords Crime and Nuisance Group) Discussant: Stephen Moore (Anglia Ruskin University)
14:10	Coffee/ tea
14:30	Recent Research Findings on the Use of ASBOs in Scotland and Social Landlords in England The use and impact of dispersal orders: The communicative properties of governing anti-social behaviour	Hal Pawson (Heriot Watt University) Discussant: Neil Wain (Greater Manchester Police) Adam Cranford (University of Leeds) Discussant: Elizabeth Burney (Cambridge University)
16:00	Open discussion
16:30	Close	