

Centre for Disability Studies, University of Leeds. End-of-Project Conference INVITATION

Disability Equality in English Primary Schools Project

*Clip art licensed from the Clip Art Gallery on DiscoverySchool.com*

The aim of this conference is to introduce and discuss the findings of the DEEPS Project. This project has explored the following:

- The extent and nature of teaching about disability (and the lives of disabled people), taking place within English primary schools.
- What, if any, challenges schools and teachers face when seeking to promote disability awareness amongst non-disabled children.
- Primary-age non-disabled children's knowledge about and attitudes towards disability and the lives of disabled people.

We would particularly like to invite teachers, members of disabled people's organisations, policy makers, researchers in the fields of Disability Studies and Inclusive Education to attend this event. We would value your thoughts/feedback on our findings.

Weetwood Hall, University of Leeds
15th September 2009, 10am – 4.30pm.

To include keynote speech by:
Prof. Colin Barnes (University of Leeds)

This event is FREE to attend. Lunch will be provided.

The venue is accessible to wheelchair users.

Please contact the Project Manager to book your place: Dr Angharad Beckett (Tel: 0113 3434409 or email: a.e.beckett@leeds.ac.uk). Places are limited, so please let us know asap if you would like to attend!

Website: <http://www.sociology.leeds.ac.uk/research/projects/deeps/>

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS